A. P. Hill Camp of Confederate Veterans' night voted unanimously to extend invitations to K. E. Lee and George E. Pickett Camps, of Richmond, to visit Petersburg on the afternoon of June 9, and participate in the Confederate Memorial exercises to be held in Blandford Cemetery. There has been some pleasant correspondence with the Survivors' Association recently.

JUDGE STANDS BY ORIGINAL RULING

Judgment in Cutchin Case Remains Suspended for Eighty-Five Days.

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.]
Roanoke, Va., June 2.—Although it was announced yesterday that Judge Mullen, who tried the case of Mayor Cutchin, would leave at midnight for his home in Petersburg, the nearest point he reached was his berth in a Pullman in the Norfolk and Western sleeper, where he was aroused at 11 o'clock last night by counsel for the prosecution, who desired to submit a motion to the court to reconsider or open up the case as to the order suspending judgment for eighty-five days, as ruled yesterday afternoon.

The proceedings were not gone into last night, and Judge Mullen remained here until this morning, when he heard the prosecution and overruled its motion, standing by his original ruling as to the eighty-five days stay.

Mr. McCormick, who represents Mayor Cutchin, was at his club last night with friends, and about 11 o'clock he heard Judge Mullen, according to the prosecution, inquiring for Judge Mullen, Judge Halston was informed that Judge Mullen was in his sleeper, and Judge Halston went there and informed the court of his mission. He told him that he wished to submit a motion to the court for the reopening of the case where it was ended in the afternoon, when an order suspending judgment for eighty-five days was entered. Judge Mullen, according to his statement from the bench this morning, had retired to his berth.

Summoned to Trial.
Mr. McCormick later was summoned to come to the private car of President L. E. Johnson, of the Norfolk and Western. It was explained by the prosecution that it would like to submit a motion concerning the length of time of the stay of judgment, holding that the sale of city bonds, voted under the judge's instruction, might be affected or delayed pending the removal of the Mayor.

Mr. McCormick entered a protest, saying that he would not consider any such proposition in the car. He said that the proper place for the discussion of such a matter was before the court, in the court-room, and that, further, one of his colleagues, Mr. Lee, had left the city.

Judge Mullen ruled that unless consent of counsel was given he could not hear the case there. Judge Mullen then appointed 10 o'clock this morning as the hour for the hearing. Thereupon Judge Mullen and the attorneys adjourned to their respective places of abode.

MRS. NAVY, OF WALNUT, WRITES INTERESTINGLY ABOUT HER CASE, WHICH, AFTER DRAGGING FOR YEARS, WAS FINALLY RELIEVED IN ONE WEEK.

Walnut, N. C.—"I suffered more or less during girlhood from female weakness," writes Mrs. Mollie Navy, of this place. "After I was married I was almost bedridden, and had to give up my three doctors. All the time I was getting worse. My condition would last from seven to twenty-eight days. I gave Cardui a trial, and in one week I could eat, sleep and joke as well as anybody. In eight weeks I was well. I was an invalid for five weary years. Cardui relieved me when everything else failed."

If you are weak and ailing, think what it would mean to recover as rapidly and surely as did Mrs. Navy. In over fifty years this strength-building remedy has been used by thousands of ladies, who found it of untold value in relieving womanly pains and ailments.

No medicine without merit could remain in such constant use and show such a continual increase in sales as Cardui has done. It is common-sense to judge a medicine, as well as a man, by success. Cardui is successful.

Try it.

WAR TRIBUTES FOR PRESIDENT

Ex-Secretary of War Dickinson Extols Patriotism of Chief Executive.

Nashville, Tenn., June 2.—J. M. Dickinson, ex-Secretary of War, in an address at a reception tendered him and Mrs. Dickinson yesterday by the Board of Trade, said that perfect harmony existed between the President and himself, and that his reasons for resigning were those given to the President first, and to the press in a formal letter. He spoke in the most commendable manner regarding President Taft, saying his criticism extended throughout the entire country; that he had appointed a Southern man and a Democrat in his Cabinet, despite the fact that the Southern States had voted against him to a unit. He also cited as the President's attitude toward the Southern States the appointment of Justice Lurton, a Democrat and a Confederate soldier, to the Supreme bench, and in appointing a Chief Justice the President elevated a Louisianan and ex-Confederate soldier.

Mr. Dickinson also said that the President in appointing Federal judges had in numerous instances appointed Democrats, as they had appeared the President's positions, and had never appointed a Democrat in the South which would offend Southern instincts. Mr. Dickinson added that it was not true that he had resigned because he expected greater political honors.

WILLIAM SINTON SHOOTS HIMSELF

Coroner's Jury Unable to Say Whether It Was Suicide or Accident.

William Sinton, until last January a resident of this city, was found dead in the back yard of his home, near Gwathmey, Hanover county, yesterday morning at 6 o'clock. A portion of his head had been shot away, and beside him lay a double-barreled shotgun, an empty chamber of which contained an empty shell. Acting Coroner G. W. Taylor held the inquest yesterday noon, and the jury returned a verdict that he came to his death at his own hands, either accidentally or intentionally. The coroner's jury, while divided between suicide and accident, was convinced that Mr. Sinton fired the shot that ended his life.

Members of the household, said yesterday that he had retired at his usual hour, and that they neither knew of his leaving the room, nor did they hear the shot. His neighbors, however, stated that they heard three reports soon after 11 o'clock. Two came in quick succession, there was an interval then another report. They paid no attention to it, as both he and others in the vicinity frequently fired at vagrant dogs during the night.
